

2017 Labor & Employment Law Update

As the law continues to change year after year, so must the workplace. These changes are often complicated and confusing. To help employers keep up, Webster Kaplan Sprunger presents its annual Labor & Employment Law Update. We will review new federal, state and local employment laws and regulations, as well as court decisions, and recommend strategies for compliance, while preserving company efficiency, culture and profit.

Discussion will include:

- Changes to federal, state and local minimum wage standards
- Update on California's mandatory paid sick leave law (including both the city and counties of Los Angeles)
- Expansion of California's Fair Pay Act
- California's new "all-gender" public restroom requirements
- California's legalization of marijuana and effect on the workplace
- Expansion of smoking ban in the workplace
- New EEOC guidelines on national origin discrimination and harassment
- City of Los Angeles "Ban the Box" ordinance
- And much, much more!
